

GRAND DESIGNS AUSTRALIA

KITCHENS & BATHROOMS

BEAUTIFUL SPACES TO ENHANCE YOUR HOME

pure vanity

With gorgeous products like these, you could be forgiven for letting your bathroom's looks go to your head

WORDS LAUREN CLARKE

Taking your vanity from everyday to extraordinary can be one way of elevating the feel of your bathroom without engaging in a complete overhaul.

Focus on individual elements, such as the tapware. Their shape and finishes can truly set the tone. Gone are the days of stubby stainless-steel handles that jut out of the wall. A new sleek and streamlined style is a vanity must-have, with colours ranging from matt through to gloss and even stunning metallics.

This focus on colour has extended to sinks. Add a pop of pink or a dramatic black to add interest and depth to your space, and if you really want to make a statement, experiment with bowl shapes. Above-counter/vessel basins are still on trend, with mixed materials — think stone, concrete and bevelled finishes.

Of course, bathroom storage remains a key feature for many vanity units. Take your standard basic white box and update it for a woodgrain to lend a sense of warmth to a room that can traditionally be quite cool, or highlight your basin with complementary vanity tones to really make a statement without sacrificing practicality.

- 01/ Curatorial House, Arent & Pyke, photography by Felix Forest. arentpyke.com
- 02/ Ceramic drawer dividers, photography by Haydn Cattach. united-products.co
- 03/ Toi basin mixer. phoenixtapware.com.au
- 04/ Morrow dark-grey concrete basin. schots.com.au
- 05/ Round Champagne mixer. meir.com.au
- 06/ Elegance basin set. maisonvalentina.net
- 07/ Noodco concrete bowl basin. noodco.com.au
- 08/ Alape Unisono counter basin. reece.com.au
- 09/ Eden wall-mount vanity cabinet. casalusso.com.au
- 10/ San Giuliano basin. pittella.com.au
- 11/ Siren basin, photography by Haydn Cattach. united-products.co
- 12/ Nabhi basin. kreoo.com
- 13/ Victoria + Albert volcanic limestone Maru 42 basin. luxebydesign.com.au
- 14/ Sussex Calibre mix-n-match. cassbrothers.com.au

