Oh so dignified

Focal point
This hammered copper Usk sits in front of a focal wall to add impact and charm.

Bathroom works of art

With his Dame collection, French designer Christophe Pillet solves the relationship between “old” and “new” by creating a collection of marble sinks and free-standing that are partially smooth and honed, and partially hand sculpted.

Singing the blues

This striking decorative pillow features a stunning stylised tree intricately embroidered onto a cotton/linen digitally printed background. It reverses to a layered leaf pattern in azure blue.

Italian shimmer
Giving your skin a luminous warm glow, this highlighter is gluten free and vegan.

Light blocker
A top-notch sleep mask that offers the ultimate comfort and performance.

Rhinestones forever
Crystal cut appliqués in tones of pink add dazzle to this insulated stainless water bottle.

Wild Poppy

From bud to blossom this spirited eau de parfum captures the evolution of the poppy flower with hints of Himalayan jasmine with the luscious aromas of pear, raspberry and apricot.
