MEMORY LANE B&B Italia's Sofasege collection pays homage to a 1975 rattan design by Mario Bellini. The new line features a sofa in two sizes and an armchair, all utilizing a cage structure wrapped in rattan. Available at the Georgetown location; babitalia.com

▼ TWO'S COMPANY Designed by Enzo Berti for Kresco, the ingenious Vis-à-Vis chaise offers seating for two. Chrome tubes cantilever from both sides of a natural-stone block; the tubes support a woven lounge complete with headrest. kresco.com

▼ LIVING COLOR Pollack has unveiled Gemini, an assortment of indoor/outdoor fabrics showcasing textured, woven surfaces and graphic patterns. Dance Track (pictured) features a kaleidoscope of hues in a herringbone weave made from post-consumer recycled polyester. Find in six color ways. FOUND IN NATURE Organic shapes inspired Royal Botania's Organix lounge collection. Kidney-shaped sofas, chairs and ottomans come with movable backrests and cushions; a coffee table with a ceramic top is part of the mix. royalbotania.com

OUTSIDE THE BOX Riviera outdoor furnishings from Portuguese brand Mambo Unlimited Ideas embrace the unconventional. Case in point: A bench (above) features rounded, faceted stainless-steel bases in a choice of pastel hues. A foam cushion and a roll-top pillow further the surprising silhouette.
